To William Wills & John Armstrong.

GENTLEMEN,

I HAVE seen your advertisement "To the Public" whereby you offer your services to locate United States Military Land Warrants, and in which you assert that you "possess superior information to any others" and that you can locate warrants "the most advantageously."—As I believe you have not explored more of the Military District than some other persons who also offer their services to locate warrants—permit me to suggest the propriety of altering your advertisement, so as to do justice to those whose knowledge of the Military Land, is, at least equal to that which you possess. I do not mean that all who advertise as locaters are superior, or even equal to you, in the knowledge of it. I see advertisements by persons who have never explored a single range, and by others who have been over but a small part of the Military Land—to these your advertisement would apply; but as you class all other locaters as inferior to yourselves. I have taken the liberty of giving you the above advice, which if attended to with candour will, for the present satisfy.

TO THE

HOLDERS OF

Military Land Warrants,

FOR THE PURPOSE OF LOCATING.

JAMES E. SMITH as early as the 2d of Sept. shortly after his return from viewing the Military Land, offered his service to the holders of Military Land Warrants for the purpose of classing, registering and locating them, in consequence of an arrangement made with Mr. James Johnson in July preceding, on the land, for the purpose of exploring the sections in the whole survey. This business having been carried into compleat effect by Mr. Johnson, with the assistance of an intelligent inhabitant of that country, they having taken notes descriptive of the situation, soil and natural advantages attached to each section in the whole survey. Mr. Johnson being now here with those notes, together with the said J. E. Smith having a compleat copy of the Surveyor General's return, made to the Treasury Department of the Township surveys.

Being thus informed the subscribers, jointly, offer their services to the holders of warrants of the above description, to receive, register and locate, for which one tenth part of the land located will be required as a compensation—for locating where the registry is already made, as may be hereafter agreed on by applying to either of the subscribers. Such of the honorable the members of Congress as may now hold, or may receive warrants from their friends before the 11th of February next, by addressing a line to either of the subscribers, through the medium of the Post Office, will be waited on agreeable to their appointment.

A valuable Estate for sale,

IN VIRGINIA.

THE NORWICH LANDS, MILLS, AND APPENDAGES.

THIS ESTATE

IS situated in the county of Henrico, on Four Mile Creek, near its junction with James River, about 12 miles from the city of Richmond, and nearly the same distance from Petersburg.

There is about 150 acres of land, and the whole of it good soil for agriculture, and a full proportion of it very suitable for grass; about one half of it is cleared and in a state fit for immediate cultivation; the rest is in woods and well covered with useful timber of different kinds. As to the improvements on the farm, there is a decent dwelling house with the usual out houses, a good brick spring house, and a large new excellent barn, one story of brick, and the other framed work, two orchards of apples and of peaches, in full perfection and good fruit.

The mills consist of three pair of bur stones for the grinding of wheat, and one pair of stones for grinding of corn, all of proved good quality, worked by overshot water wheels and double gears, with all the late improvements for screening, cleaning, bolting and elivating the wheat and flour, all executed in the best manner and of the best materials and quite new—The mill house is large and convenient, being 46 feet by 72 feet with five floors, the two lower stories are brick, the rest framed work executed in the most substantial manner; the house and machinery of the mills will be found unexceptionable, and they are so situated as to be free from all risque from the freshes or inundation of the water courses—There is a very convenient brick bake house two stories high, with two large ovens; a very good house for the proprietor or manager, a store room, counting room, kitchen, &c. also suitable houses for millers, coopers, and bakers—The tide water from James River flows to the walls of the mill, where boats of three to four hundred bushels burthen can receive their loads out of the mill, and in one miles distance, ships of any size that navigate James River, can load in great safety.

The neighborhood is healthy—very respectable as to inhabitants, being mostly independent farmers, and the soil is in general very justly esteemed equal to any on James River, for the growing of wheat; upon a moderate calculation, the average annual crops of the neighborhood equally convenient if not more so, to the Norwich Mills, than to any other market, amount to between thirty and forty thousand bushels of wheat. Mr. John P. Gordon who lives on the premises at present, will shew the whole to those who may incline to view it.

I would prefer a purchaser who could pay down the principal part of the purchase money, and would give a very advantageous bargain—or I will sell on a credit convenient to the purchaser, the interest being paid annually. I will wait for a purchaser till the 15th day of March next, and if not then sold, I will be glad to treat with a tenant for a lease, on terms which may be mutually agreeable. I have offered the whole of this estate for sale, on a presumption that the purchaser of the mills would incline to have the land also, for a supply of building timber, oven wood and hoop poles; but if it be more agreeable to him to take the mills and a few acres of land, he shall be accommodated accordingly.

The Democrats have at length completely carried their point with respect to the Permanent Army. It was resolved on Monday, in the Senate, that the bill sent up from the House of Representatives, suspending the enlistments, should pass into a law; and no other reliance is now left us for the preservation of this bulwark of the public hope, from the effects of ruinous a step, but the courage of His Excellency, the President of the United States.

The votes in the Senate on this momentous question, were as follows:

For putting a stop to the enlistments—

Messrs.	Anderson	Brown	Langdon
	Baldwin	Cocke	Marshall
	Bloodworth	Franklin	Mason
	Foster	Nicholas	Pinckney

Also,—Messrs. Bingham
Dexter

Gentlemen who voted for preserving the Army according to the law by which it was established—

Messrs.	Chipman	Laurance	Schureman
	Latimer	Loyd	Tracy
	Wells	Read	Watson.

Impressed as we are with the most serious alarms at the manifest tendencies of this dreadful step, we cannot for a moment allow ourselves to doubt, that the measure will be nipped in the bud by the decided negative of the Executive. Never can there be an occasion more imperiously to demand that negative than the present. The President has expressly declared to both Houses of Congress, that, however the mission to France may terminate, a steady perseverance in a system of national defence is indispensable to our peace and safety. An advance therefore, on the part of Congress, towards impairing the grounds on which his administration rests, and on which his particular measures are bottomed, can only be met on his part, by opposing a firm countenance to such attempts, at the outset, or by recalling the steps themselves.

The measure just adopted is more awful, I think, in whatever aspect viewed, than that proposed by the honorable member from Virginia. In the first place, as it was carried by Federal votes; by gentlemen, who, under the influence of I know not what wretched calculations, advance into what they deem a neutral region, to embrace the enemy. This neutral country is full of concealed snares, and gins and pitfalls: every step of it is mined, and fraught with devices for their destruction. They have been blown from it into the air more than fifty times, and yet they advance upon it again, with the most sovereign unconcern. In the second place,—from the excess of evil, there often arises some important good—their extremes do often meet. From this benefit these good gentlemen have most kindly cut us off; and by the half measure they have adopted, left us exposed, to all the mischiefs which could have resulted from the prevalence of the motion of Mr. Nicholas. Thirdly, the measure of stopping the recruiting service, is worse than that of disbanding the army; because, nearly all the expense still continues, while all the beneficial effect of that expense is perverted to our injury. A Monarch without subjects, a general without an army, and an officer without soldiers, are standing butts of the jest and ridicule of all mankind; and a surer mode could hardly have been devised, for disgusting every military man in the country, than this of depriving the officers of their troops, thereby making each of them a pompous effigies of dignity, a nomen et præterea nihil. These officers will not mutiny against their government, because they are amongst the most respectable and patriotic of men. It is my pride to boast an acquaintance with many of them, who have laid aside professions which supported them in the rank of gentlemen, and with others, who relinquished every luxury and enjoyment of affluence, to join this army, this phalanx of federalism, these cohorts of justice and honor against the infidel, rapacious and sanguinary invaders of our rights, and their atrocious and unprincipled sectaries. I know they will not mutiny; but if it had been sought to devise a scheme to drive men to the extremest excess of disgust, I know not a more plausible one than this.

The resolution proposed by Mr. Randolph ought now in all reason to be adopted. It is necessary in order to render this measure consistent with reason or common sense.

The whole force of the mighty Twelve Regiments is, then, cut down to about three thousand men! Precious defence against the invasion of a foreign enemy, or the machinations of domestic treason. Why, M'Kean will turn out more than this number of well-armed, well-organized militia-men from the city and county of Philadelphia alone. I do not think that the movements of that powerful Triumvirate, Jefferson, M'Kean and Munroe, are by any means to be despised or disregarded. It is no longer a doubt that our unhappy country nourishes in her bosom vipers who live but in the hope of inflicting a mortal sting. There is not a doubt, that there are men in America, and men too of powerful and operative force who would prostrate without remorse every pillar of the public happiness, to found an hierarchy, under which they might more securely aggrandize themselves; I do not less doubt, that these Capulets are abroad, that their hot blood is up, and stirring towards this object. And is this a time for disbanding troops? Is there not extant a danger to be guarded against, *quocunque modo? But there seems to be a system for repressing in the Federal cause all spirit worthy of the part which it is called to act. Sure never till now, were the counsels of Adonis relied on in affairs of state. When the reins of the steeds and the chariot of the Sun, were entrusted to the guidance of Phæton, we read that the car was overthrown, and the presumptuous youth submersed in the waves.

True Americans will say, it is a vexatious suit that this man urges with us, when the truth is, that I have only to say vestra res agitur: they will exclaim, whence this abuse and illiberality against an œconomical and a conciliatory measure? It was by his curst œconomy that the villain Neckar, brought his monarch into all his troubles; and it was by conciliatory measures, that the unhappy Prince lost his head. If the œconomy, and the squeamishness, and the present conciliatory disposition of Federalism endure much longer, its empire will pass away like a dream, the shadows of illumination (no figure) will encompass it around, and its œconomy, and its conscientiousness, and its conciliation, and all its bitter delusions, will be atoned in one truly Republican succession of Fire and Blood.

The abuse of True Americans, half-Federalists and conciliation men, I have long learnt to despise. I feel inexpressible and incontroulable chagrin and indignation, when I see measures pursued, under whatever calculations, so evidently tending to the ruin and subversion of the order and peace of this society, and so utterly militant against all usage and experience. Not having any Gold to hug, like the poor rich True Americans, and Time serving Federalists, and œconomists and conciliators, I have no other object so near me, as the success and prosperity of my much-abused, sadly distressed country; and I will protest, alike against the undivulged pretence of treasonous malice, and the more fatal cowardice and ignorance of the enemies to every establishment by which in this day of distress and tribulation, the great Ark of our safety might be preserved and maintained.

I will dwell but for moment on the hope that the President will interpose his Veto between this alarming measure and its consequences, and then quit a subject on which there will be nothing more to say.

The preservation of harmony between the different branches of the government, is undoubtedly desireable: at the same time, when an important prerogative is entrusted to either department and the exercise of that prerogative is demanded by motives of public safety, no considerations of this or any other nature ought to prevent the exertion of it. Nor, do the reproaches of evil-minded men on such occasions, merit the slightest regard. It is true that the newly enlightened citizens of France, murdered their Royal master, on this pretence; but the people of America, however debauched by the introduction of the profligate principles of that hideous race, are not yet degenerated to so high a pitch of perfectibility, civilization and refinement. In this one respect, at least, they are not yet the freest and most enlightened nation on earth. I think, that whoever attentively considers the late events in France, will view that Republic as a more formidable enemy to America than ever—formidable in enmity, in fallacious peace still more so: Gallis fidem non habendam. Talleyrand, who was turned out of office by the old government, for demanding tributes and bribes of our ministers, we behold reinstated in his former office by the new governors? And for what particular merit more probably, than for his care over the Strong Box of the Republic, to which Buonaparte appears to have a very single eye. With this polluted, ill-omened Apostolus Diaboli our mission must treat, if they be at all allowed to treat, which I deem very questionable.

Are these the auspices on which we are to rely for peace; this the crisis at which our wisdom disbands the only army the country has to boast of?

* Peradventure, our self-sufficient, middle-going, conciliatory Federalists, possess the enchantment of Pompey, and with a stamp of their foot, can call up Legions, like the soldiers of Cadmus, from the Earth. Since they ape the conduct of that memorable man, it will be proper to remind them of his fate. We have more than one Cæsar to deal with.

DIED, on Thursday evening, Mr. Henry Phillips, merchant of this city.

WATER-OFFICE.

Centre Square, Febeuary 5, 1800.

IN compliance with the instructions of the Committee for watering the city, and with my own inclinations, every possible admittance and information has been given to those citizens who have visited the Works during their progress. The Engines are now arrived, and are immediately to be put up, and it is hoped that it will be thought reasonable and just, both to the Public, and to the Contractor for the Engines, that the workmen should not be interrupted. As a very few months will fully gratify the curiosity of the citizens, by shewing them the Engines in full operation, a temporary exclusion of all visitors from the Engine houses cannot appear improper.

From a late Norfolk Paper.

A CURIOUS ANECDOTE.

A ſtranger who came down on Thurſday laſt in the ſouthern ſtage, croſſed the river from Portſmouth, and being ignorant of the cleanneſs of the ſtreets of Norfolk, in endeavoring to make Catharine-ſtreet, and it being pretty dark, unfortunately took the middle of Wright's lane inſtead of the foot path: ſtruggling with mud full ſix inches above his knees, he called out for help ſeveral times. A negro man paſſing by, aſked what was the matter? —when the gentleman replied,—"that the d—d ferrymen had turned him adrift at low water mark!"

NOTICE.

The SAILING MATCH, that was to have taken place this day, is poſtponed until after the next good rain: when two flat-bottomed boats will ſtart from Hutching's wharf along the channel of the Main-ſtreet to the collector's office, where they will tack, and if the wind is fair, will ſhape their courſe back again. It is requeſted, that drays and other carriages will, at the time, haul in ſhore, ſo as to keep the offing as free as poſſible.

An accident, ſomewhat ſimilar to the above, happened on Friday night, to a luſty gentleman of this borough, who for ſize and worth is not ſurpaſſed by many who have to ſtruggle through this dirty world. Some arch wag having raiſed a plank in the croſſing at the end of Church ſtreet, this worthy gentleman, returning home at a pretty early hour, unfortunately ſtepped in; the more he ſtruggled the more his weight bore him down, till at laſt the watch aided by ſome of the military, with ſome difficulty extricated him. We are happy to add, that he is recovering faſt, although for ſome time he had no ſenſibility that he had a joint at his knee!

A writer in the Virginia Federaliſt, calls the attention of the American public to a moſt important ſubject, by the following publication. Of the tendencies of Mr. Jefferſon's principles there is little doubt. By the eaſtern and ſound part of the continent, they are held in ſuch abhorrence, that a ſubjection to his government, would be viewed and avoided as the fatal ſeal of their diſſolution. Thus horrible as the event of his election would be, it ſeems highly urgent that preparations ſhould forthwith be made to ward off an evil, the ill conſequences of which are incalculable.

For the Virginia Federalist.

At a time when America is overwhelmed with grief, when a whole country with the exception of a few individuals, is deploring the loſs of the great and good WASHINGTON, whatever relates to him, naturally ruſhes upon our thoughts. The letter to Mazzei the Italian philoſopher, written by Mr. Jefferſon ſome time ago cannot be forgotten. The people who now preſent to the world an unexampled ſpectacle of affliction from one end of this vaſt continent to the other, cannot forget the author of that high wrought calumny on him who was their SAMSON in the field, and their SOLOMON in council. That it may be recollected with all the abhorrence which it deſerves, here follows an exact copy as printed in the various papers in the United States: Let every American citizen read it, and conſider with himſelf, whether Thomas Jefferſon is worthy of ſucceeding to the office of Preſident of a free, affectionate and virtuous people. That he wrote the letter is unqueſtionable. It is no palliation that it was written confidentially to an intimate friend acroſs the atlantic, to whom Mr. Jefferſon was unboſoming his ſoul. It was well for this gentleman that it was not known prior to the laſt election of Preſident and Vice Preſident: It is well for him that the law of limitation ſhields him from puniſhment. However, no puniſhment which the laws could inflict for ſuch a crime would be ſufficient. It can only be ſufficiently puniſhed by a ſenſe of contempt towards the author as ſincere and univerſal among the citizens as is the honor now beſtowed on the memory of their departed friend.

MR. JEFFERSON TO MR. MAZZEI,
Reſident in Tuſcany.

"OUR political ſituation is prodigiouſly changed ſince you left us. Inſtead of "that noble love of liberty, and that republican government which carried us "triumphantly through the dangers of the "war, an anglo-monarchico-ariſtocratic "party has ariſen. Their avowed object "is to impoſe on us the ſubſtance, as they "have already given us the form of the "Britiſh government. Nevertheleſs the "principal body of our citizens remain "faithful to republican principles. All "our proprietors of lands are friendly to "thoſe principles, as alſo the maſs of men "of talents. We have againſt us (republicans) the executive power, the judiciary power, (two of three branches of our government) all the officers of government, "all who are ſeeking offices, all timid men "who prefer the calm of deſpotiſm to the tempeſtuous ſea of liberty, the Britiſh merchants, "and the Americans who trade on Britiſh "capitals, the ſpeculators, perſons intereſted "in the bank and the public funds."—[Eſtabliſhments invented with views of corruption, and to aſſimilate us to the Britiſh model, in its corrupt parts.] I ſhould give you a fever, if I ſhould name the apoſtates who have embraced thoſe hereſies, men who were SOLOMONS in council, and SAMSONS in combat, but whoſe hair has been cut off by the whore of England. [In the original, par la catin d'Angleterre, probably alluding to the woman's cutting off the hair of Samſon, and his loſs of ſtrength thereby.]

"They would wreſt from us that liberty which we have obtained, by ſo much labor and peril; but we ſhall preſerve it. Our maſs of weight and riches is ſo powerful that we have nothing to fear from any attempt againſt us by force. It is ſufficient that we guard ourſelves, and that we break the Lilliputian ties, by which they have bound us, in the firſt ſlumbers which ſucceeded our labors. It ſuffices, that we arreſt the progreſs of that ſyſtem of ingratitude and injuſtice, towards France, from whom they would alienate us, to bring us under Britiſh influence, &c."

Wilmington. Dec. 14.

Maternal Squeeze from Mother Britain.

"Capt. Baker on his outward bound paſſage, was boarded by the Britiſh ſhip Thunderer, of 74 guns, Capt. Hardy, who impreſſed one of Capt. Baker's hands, a young man, ſon of Mr. Simpſon, of this town, maugre his protection.—Capt. Baker was politely treated in other reſpects by the Capt. of the Thunderer.

"After this truly polite rencontre with the Thunderer, Capt. Baker was boarded by a ſchr. of 6 and a ſloop of 10 guns, belonging to New Providence, who robbed him of a quantity of flour and gave him an order on a perſon who they ſaid was a Merchant in New Providence, for payment as they farcically termed it for the flour they purchaſed."

This is one among the many arts, which the Democniacs, alias Democrats, (for the words are ſynonimous, make uſe of in America, to create a rancour againſt the Britiſh Government—I beg leave to make a few obſervations on the above paragraph, which at firſt ſight does not appear worthy notice.

The writer of this was an officer on board the Primroſe, private ſloop of war; the George ſchr. was in company. Off the mouth of the Miſſiſippi, we boarded the ſloop Farmer; I examined her papers, in preſence of the two captains and every thing appeared right.—Being in want of flour we aſked him, if he would ſpare ſome, to which he willingly agreed, and ſhowing us the Invoice of his cargo, we found it coſt him 8½ dollars at (Wilmington, Delaware) he then put his own profit on it, viz. 3 dollars per barrel, freight, but, captains Weſt and Symmonett agreed to allow him 14 dollars per barrel, for which I drew an order for 196 dollars on a moſt reſpectable mercantile houſe. The order has never been preſented, but will be paid at ſight.

So far from robbing him, it is a fact, which he dare not deny, that he offered us a barrel of peach brandy, or whiſky on the ſame terms.—He alſo made the offer of ſome barrels of bread, which he averred to be freſh: but having bought experience of American honeſty but the purchaſe of ten barrels before leaving Naſſau, without ſeeing them, we opened them; when, to the mortification of this robbed, much abuſed Baker, we found his bread was not well Baked; it was literally green with rottenneſs.

With regard to the man preſſed on board the Thunderer, I ſolemnly declare, and all who boarded the ſloop are ready to teſtify, that Baker told us, the man preſſed, was an Iriſhman and a deſerter from the Thunderer, and that he was an "uſeleſs ſcoundrel," that he had received another man in return, who was much preferable to the one taken from him, and that he really was glad the fellow was gone.

The above is a true ſtatement of facts, and the writer's name is left with the PRINTER.

CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, February 2.

On motion of Mr. Smith, the houſe went into committee of the whole on the bill extending the time of payment of bonds given for duties of impoſt, in certain caſes —Mr. Rutledge in the chair—when

Mr. Sheaffe having ſuggeſted, that the giving this indulgence, might inconvenience the treaſury by being called upon by the collectors, for money to diſcharge debentures on goods given for drawback, without a poſitive proviſion be made that ſuch debentures ſhould not be paid till the duties were diſcharged—after ſome obſervations from Meſſrs. Smith, Nicholas, Otis and Sewall, the committee roſe and the bill was re-committed to the committee of commerce and manufactures.

A meſſage was received from the Senate, by Mr. Otis, their ſecretary, informing the houſe, that the Senate had paſſed the bill intituled "An act to ſuſpend in part an act intituled an act to augment the army of the United States and for other purpoſes."

The houſe went into committee of the whole on the bill further to ſuſpend the commercial intercourſe between the United States and France and the dependencies thereof. Mr. Rutledge in the chair—and after ſome time ſpent therein the committee roſe, reported progreſs, and obtained leave to ſit again.

A meſſage was received from the Preſident of the United States, by his ſecretary Mr. Shaw, informing the houſe, that the Preſident had yeſterday approved and ſigned the following acts, which originated in this houſe, viz. "An act to repeal part of an act intituled an act to provide for mitigating or remitting the forfeitures, penalties and diſabilities accruing in certain caſes therein mentioned, and for other purpoſes," "An act for the relief of John Vaughan;" And "an act giving further time to the holders of military land warrants, to regiſter and locate the ſame."

Mr. Davis called up for conſideration the reſolution which he laid on the table on Monday laſt, inſtituting an enquiry into the expediency of preventing caveats being filed againſt the iſſuing of patents for land, granted by the State of Virginia, for military ſervices; and the reſolution having been again read, was agreed to, and a committee of three members appointed for the purpoſe.

The houſe went into committee of the whole on the bill in addition to the laws relative to the military eſtabliſhment of the United States, Mr. Rutledge in the chair, when the bill was read as follows:

Be it enacted, &c. That if any perſon who (ſhall have enliſted, or) hereafter may enliſt, as a non-commiſſioned officer or private ſoldier, in the ſervice of the United States, ſhall, prior to his enliſtment, have been taken in execution, or arreſt for debt, or contract, and committed to priſon and at the time of his enliſtment, as aforeſaid, be holden in priſon by virtue of ſaid execution or arreſt, ſuch perſon ſhall not be diſcharged from his impriſonment in conſequence of his enliſting as aforeſaid, and prior to his enliſtment, ſhall have given bail, and at the time of his enliſtment, his bail ſhall not have been diſcharged in due courſe of law, it ſhall and may be lawful for the bail to take ſuch meaſures for his or their diſcharge, as he or they might have taken if the principal had not been enliſted in the ſervice of the United States; and in caſe the principal ſhall be ſurrendered up by the bail, he ſhall be holden in like manner, as if he had not been enliſted as aforeſaid, any law or laws to the contrary notwithſtanding."

Mr. Otis moved to amend the bill ſo as to confine its operation to perſons who may hereafter enliſt, by ſtriking out the words in italic in the ſecond line of it.

Mr. O. ſaid, he conceived the government had no right to break their contract with the ſoldiers, a great part of whom had probably enliſted for the benefit of the proviſion now about to be reſcinded.

After ſome debate, and Mr. Nicholas having ſaid he wiſhed to make a motion which would more fully try this principle, Mr. O. withdrew his motion, and the committee roſe and reported the bill without amendment—when

Mr. Nicholas moved that the bill be re-committed to a ſelect committee, with inſtruction to amend the laws relative to the military eſtabliſhment, ſo as to take away the exemption thereby given to non commiſſioned officers, muſicians and privates, from arreſt for any debt or contract, exiſting or entered into before their enliſtment, above the ſum of 20 dollars.

Meſſrs. Marſhal, Otis, Rutledge, Smith, Shephard and Champlin, oppoſed the motion; and Meſſrs. Varnum, Macon, Nicholas, Jones and Gallatin, ſpoke in favor of it. The queſtion was then taken by yeas and nays, as follow:

YEAS.

Meſſrs. Alſton, Bailey, R. Brown, Cabelle, Chriſtie, Clay, Claiborne, Condit, Davis, Dawſon, Eggleſton, Elmendorf, Fowler, Gallatin, Goode, Gregg, Hanna, Heiſter, Henderſon, Holmes, Jackſon, Jones, Kitchell, Leib, Lyon, Livingſton, Macon, Muhlenberg, New, Nicholas, Nott, Randolph, Smilie, Spaight, Stanford, Stone, Sumpter, Taliaferro, A. William M'Cloughan reſident of Gibb's alley, in the city of New-York, cooper, voluntary maketh oath that he was ſeverely afflicted with a conſumption for upwards of 18 years, that he laboured under the moſt inexpreſſible affliction with a violent cough and ſhortneſs of breath, that he could not lie down in his bed for weeks together, but was obliged to be proped up by pillows or in an armed chair, and in the day time unable to attend his buſineſs; that at length he was ſo reduced and waſted away, as to be ſcarce able to walk at all: that he had tried the ſkill of many reſpectable medical men, and has expended a very conſiderable ſum of money, and has taken a great deal of medicines without effect. That at laſt he deſpaired of ever getting cured, till he, through recommendation, took Dr. Church's cough drops, from which he found very preſent relief, and by perſevering in the uſe of them, he is now perfectly reſtored to health, and has had no return or ſymptom of his diſorder ſince

Copy of a Letter from capt. Henry.

Dear Sir,

In the year '95, I had the misfortune to break a blood veſſel, which was ſucceeded by a ſevere complaint on my lungs, cough, ſhortneſs of breath and ſpitting up of matter and blood, with every other diſagreeable ſymptom of a diſorder of the lungs; indeed ſo afflicting was this diſorder, that I could not reſt at night, nor could walk 200 yards in the day, without ſtopping to cough and reſt myſelf a number of times. This diſorder continued to increaſe upon me, till I was much waſted in body, and exceedingly weak. Seeing your advertiſements in the public papers, early in the laſt ſummer, I commenced taking your juſtly celebrated Cough Drops, which I perſevered in the uſe of, for ſometime; I have now the happineſs of informing you, my lungs are perfectly ſound; I have no ſhortneſs of breath, or ſpitting up of matter or blood; my cough is a little troubleſome in the morning, but no other time. I am Sir,

Your's every reſpectfully,

TO DR. CHURCH.

Sir,

For upwards of twelve years, I have laboured under a ſevere cough, ſhortneſs of breath, ſpitting of matter from my lungs, and often clotted blood, till at length I was ſo reduced as to be unable to walk acroſs my room, and owing to the violence of my cough and ſhortneſs of breath could get no reſt day or night. Hearing of your excellent medicine, the Cough Drops, I procured a bottle; I took a doſe as ſoon as I got it, from which I found inſtantaneous relief, and by continuing it for three days, I bleſs God I am reſtored to perfect health. As I believe, you have been the inſtrument in the hands of Providence, by ſaving my life, I muſt entreat you to publiſh this for the benefit of any who may be in my ſituation, as I am confident it is one of the beſt medicines in the world for thoſe complaints.

I am Sir, your grateful ſervant,

FOR ALL
DISEASES OF THE EYES.

Church's celebrated Eye Salve.

For ſeveral years univerſally acknowledged as a certain and infallible cure for inflammations, dimneſs, dryneſs, blights, itchings, and films in the eyes, proceeding from natural weakneſs, or from accidents, ſuch as blows, duſt, lime, or any thing elſe being thrown into the eyes. It is admirable in natural weakneſs of ſight, in deſtructions of rheum, and for all ailments in the eyes after the ſmall pox, meaſles and fevers; it is ſingularly efficacious in carrying off all watery and groſs humours; and in ſtrengthening the ſight—in ſhort, there is no diſeaſe to which the eye is ſubject, but this ſalve is not a ſovereign remedy: many hundreds have experienced its efficacy when in the greateſt danger of loſing their ſight.

[Price 75 cents.]

Prepared only by the inventor and ſole proprietor, Dr. James Church, at his diſpenſary, 137 Front ſtreet, near the Fly market, New York; and ſold by Meſſrs. H. and P. Rice, 16 ſouth Second ſtreet, Philadelphia.

The nervous, debilitated, or ſedentary, whoſe diſeaſes have in a great meaſure baffled the powers of medicine, would do well in making trial of which need only to be taken to acquire univerſal approbation; not only for its balſamic and reſtorative properties, in all decays from age, intemperance or diſeaſe; and in preſerving a good conſtitution and mending a bad one, but for its claims to public favor, as a pleaſant and wholeſome breakfaſt; which will be found infinitely ſuperior to Foreign Tea. Artiſts and others whoſe profeſſions require a ſteady hand, will find great relief from the uſe of this vegetable diet, but particularly thoſe who lead a ſedentary life

A package at 75 cents, will laſt one perſon for breakfaſt, nearly one month.

It is ſold wholeſale and retail only by the inventor and ſole proprietor, Dr. James Church, 137 Front ſtreet, New York; Meſſrs. H. and P. Rice, 16 ſouth Second ſtreet, Philadelphia; and Mr. Rice, Baltimore.

UPWARDS OF

Eighteen Thousand Persons

Of all ages, within nine months paſt, have found relief from

HAMILTON'S

Worm deſtroying Lozenges,

In various complaints ariſing from worms and from foulneſs or obſtructions in the ſtomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of ſimilar title ſo commonly complained of, as operating with a degree of violence, ſufficient, not only to kill worms, but ſometimes to endanger the patient's life; on the contrary, a peculiar excellence of this remedy is, its being ſuited to every age and conſtitution, contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is ſo mild in its operation, that it cannot injure the moſt delicate pregnant lady, or the tendereſt infant of a week old, ſhould no worms exiſt in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanſe the ſtomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offenſive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal diſorders.

RECENT CURES

Selected from ſeveral hundreds, the authenticity of which, any perſon may aſcertain either by letter or perſonal application—not being performed in Europe, nobody knows where—but at home.

AFFIDAVIT,

MICHAEL DUFFY, reſiding at No. 47, Wilkes ſtreet, Fell's point, in the city of Baltimore, voluntarily maketh oath, that the following ſtatement is juſt and true.

In the beginning of May laſt, my three children, a boy of ſeven, and two girls, the one five and the other three years of age, were taken very ill, nearly at the ſame time, of a common fever, as I then ſuppoſed; but was ſoon convinced the diſorder was cauſed by worms: they were frequently troubled with convulſion fits, and violent ſtartings in their ſleep, and with almoſt continual vomiting and purging, particularly the youngeſt. I made immediate application to a phyſician of the firſt reputation, and his medicines were adminiſtered with a confidence of ſucceſs which only encreaſed our diſappointment. The children grew daily worſe, and I was abſolutely without hopes of their recovery. The youngeſt ſoon appeared almoſt devoid of animation, and ſcarcely an inhabitant of this world. In this diſtreſſing moment, I was told that Hamilton's Worm Deſtroying Lozenges had performed many cures in caſes equally deſperate—I immediately purchaſed a box, and gave each of them a doſe, which in a few hours produced the moſt deſirable effects; the eldeſt voided a great number of very large worms, and the ſecond thouſands of ſmall ones, many of them not a quarter of an inch long—in the youngeſt they ſeemed to be conſumed, and had the appearance of ſkins and of ſlimy matter. I repeated the doſe agreeable to the paper of directions, and they all ſpeedily recovered a good ſtate of health which they ſtill enjoy, tho' five months have nearly elapſed ſince they were on the borders of the grave, and the death of the whole appeared to be inevitable.

Sworn before me this 26th day of September, 1799. J. SMITH.

LETTER

From Mr. John J. Abercromby, Soap and Candle Manufacturer, No. 28, Bridge Street, Baltimore.

TO THE PROPRIETOR OF

Hamilton's Worm Deſtroying Lozenges.

SIR, October 22, 1799.

I think it my duty to inform you that I have experienced the happieſt effects from your Lozenges, having been much afflicted for four years paſt, with various complaints cauſed by worms, particularly a conſtant pain in my ſtomach and bowels, frequent and ſevere head ache, with a general laſſitude and weakneſs, during which time I had the beſt medical advice that could be obtained from the moſt ſkilful phyſicians I could hear of, both American and European, with out any alleviation of my diſorder.

I ſhould, too probably, have continued without relief, but for your Worm Deſtroying Lozenges, which brought from me an aſtoniſhing quantity of ſmall white worms, about the ſize of a coarſe thread, and in a ſhort time, I found myſelf perfectly free from all my former complaints, and have enjoyed a good ſtate of health for five months paſt.

I have conſtantly recommended your medicine, and ſhall as long as I live, having, from, my own experience reaſon to believe it to be an invaluable and unparalell'd remedy. Should any perſon wiſh for further information, I will with pleaſure ſatisfy their enquiries on this ſubject. JOHN J. ABERCROMBY.

SIR, July 10, 1799.

I had been a long time afflicted with a violent and gnawing pain in my ſtomach, a dull, heavy, continual head ache, with a frequent ſwimming in my head, accompanied with dimneſs of ſight and ſometimes partial blindneſs, and was rendered incapable of attending my buſineſs, thro' loſs of ſtrength; ſometimes could ſcarcely eat a morſel for two or three days; when my appetite would ſuddenly become aſtoniſhingly voracious. I firmly believed myſelf to be in a conſumption, which muſt ſoon put a period to my life when happily hearing of ſeveral cures performed by Hamilton's Worm Deſtroying Lozenges in complaints which could not be accounted for, I took two doſes, which expelled an incredible number of ſmall ſharp pointed worms: in ſhort, I now enjoy as perfect health and ſtrength, as ever I did in my life, and I believe my cure to be entirely effected by means of your medicine.

My brother witneſſing its ſurpriſing efficacy was induced to take a doſe though in tolerable health, which occaſioned him likewiſe to void a great quantity of worms of the ſame kind, and thereby probably prevented his experiencing thoſe dreadful diſorders with which I was afflicted.

A ſincere deſire that others in ſimilar circumſtances may receive the ſame benefit, is the reaſon of my ſending you this account.

Yours, very reſpectfully,

AQUILA GOLDING.

Hartford Road, 2 miles from Baltimore.

TERMS

Of Richard Folwell, in Philadelphia,

FOR SUBSCRIBING TO THE

JOURNALS OF CONGRESS,

From the commencement

Of the American War, IN 1774, to the preſent time,

INCLUDING

The Reports of Heads of Departments, of Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now firſt permitted to be made public.

TERMS.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat tipe, in large octavo.

Each volume will contain above 500 pages, neatly bound and lettered.

Uniformity in ſize, paper, and binding, will be obſerved throughout the work; ſo that, while the ſubſcribers become poſſeſſed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.

The price to ſubſcribers will be 2 dolls. 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls. whole bound, but, as the publiſher does not intend to print many more than the number ſubſcribed for, a conſiderable riſe on the price may be expected to non-ſubſcribers.

Each volume will contain about one third leſs of letter-preſs than the original edition; but, as the publiſher is not yet enabled to determine the extent of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot aſcertain the number of volumes which will compriſe the work.

☞ Payments to be made on delivery of each volume.

Subſcribers will have it at their option, either to ſubſcribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the preſent time, or to thoſe only of the Old Congreſs prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are loſt in darkneſs and obſcurity, owing to a careleſsneſs, in the ſucceeding generation, to preſerve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in theſe rude ages, being called off from their domeſtic concerns, to engage in wars and conqueſt. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been tranſmitted to our days? Time, that deſtroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almoſt ineſtimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their aſſiſtance in tranſmitting to poſterity the labours of their anceſtors—founders of the Columbian nation.

 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will ſhow the ſupport it has already acquired:

"Reſpectfully ſheweth,

"That having, in our reſpective avocations, frequent occaſions to recur to the Journals of Congreſs, we experience inconvenience by the ſcarcity of them: That we underſtand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed proſecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, reſpectfully ſolicit, as the publication is neceſſary to be diſſeminated among public bodies, that Congreſs will, in their wiſdom render him ſuch additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, ſo that your Memorialiſts may be enabled to purchaſe copies of that record for themſelves.
